

Make sure to get refills before your child runs out of medicine.

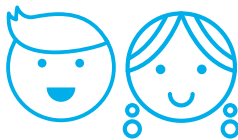

Check that your child has asthma medicine when he or she is going to be away from home.

Check the date of the medication to make sure it is not too old.

Children should carry their reliever with them and keep one at home, school or other places they spend a lot of time.

Younger children should carry a spacer and mask as directed by the doctor.